PHJA objects to the fee demands made by your agency in response to PHJA's public records request. This is a very simple public records request, which should only take a few minutes to fulfill. As you know, the requested records are subject to disclosure and readily available. Please reconsider your position and provide the requested records without further delays, demands or conditions.

Subject: Custodian of Public Records for the North Palm Beach Police Department (Reference Number PHJA-LE-0001-0225-A)

Please accept this email as a public records request made by Public Housing Justice Association, LLC, (hereinafter, "PHJA"), to the North Palm Beach Police Department. If you are not the Custodian of Public Records for the North Palm Beach Police Department, please immediately forward this public records request to the Custodian of Public Records for your agency.

PHJA seeks the following public records:

All emails created, received or maintained by the North Palm Beach Police Department utilizing email addresses containing "@ring.com".

As proscribed by Section 119.07(1), Florida Statutes (2019), PHJA wishes to receive the requested records in their original electronic format. See Miami-Dade County v. Professional Law Enforcement Association, 997 So. 2d 1289 (Fla. 3d DCA 2009). If the North Palm Beach Police Department anticipates that the production of the requested records will require payment by PHJA, please provide a detailed and itemized written estimate prior to production of the requested records.

When corresponding with PHJA regarding this public records request, please use Reference Number PHJA-LE-0001-0225-A and send all communications to PHJA-LE-0001@phja.online.

Thank you.
